Honolulu, Hawaii (January 2014) – PARENTS, Inc. is pleased to announce its new PARENTS Profile featuring a different public figure every month to share their parenting tips and suggestions. Their experiences will help other parents gain valuable insight into how rewarding and challenging parenting can be!

Rick Blangiardi, general manager of Hawaii News Now, is our first interviewee kicking off the New Year 2014! WATCH Rick's *PARENTS Profile: <http://www.hawaiiparents.org/parents-profile>

We encourage the community to nominate who they want to hear from for parenting tips. If you have a role model in the community that you would like to nominate, please click here to fill out a nomination form.

Each person selected will answer the following interview questions which will be videotaped and featured on www.hawaiiparents.org and PARENTS, Inc. social media sites:

1. What is the best parenting advice you ever received?
2. What has parenting taught you?
3. What is the most difficult thing about being a parent?
4. What is the best thing about being a parent?
5. How do you effectively juggle your career and family life?
6. Did you ever receive any type of parenting education? Would you recommend it today?
7. What is the most important tip you can give others about how to raise a healthy, loving, well-rounded child?

It is our belief that the help and support of each of these role models will touch the lives of other parents and encourage and promote the value of nurturing relationships and positive parenting.

PARENTS, Inc. is a non-profit organization established in 1975 to strengthen families by providing parenting education and support services in the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Our vision is that every child should have the opportunity to grow up in a nurturing family.
